Recital of Incidents of Early Saturday Morning by Mrs. Clevenger and Negro Don't Coincide

LEE SAYS HE WAS RUN AWAY

During Struggle Between Him, Clevenger and Third Man for Gun it Was Accidentally Discharged

DIDN'T KNOW MAN WAS KILLED

Coroner Barnett and Prosecutor Smith resumed the investigation on the mysterious death of Joe Clevenger, who was found dead in a lonely lane near his home last Saturday morning, this afternoon. John Lee, the negro in the case, and Luther Butts, who is held in jail along with the negro, were to be examined by the coroner in the presence of the prosecutor.

A verdict from the corner is not expected for several days and when it does come will not likely tell much as it is not necessary for him to tell who killed Clevenger. The verdict may also find that Clevenger met his death accidentally in a struggle for the possession of the rifle owned by the negro.

The finding of the negro yesterday afternoon created a profound stir and hundreds of people visited the jail in an effort to get a glimpse of the man, who seems to be the center of the attack. Lee, however, is confined to an upstairs cell and will likely remain there until the finding of the coroner or the meeting of the grand jury.

One of the surprising things about the colored man's story is that it conforms in every detail, except one with that told by Mrs. Clevenger, widow of the man who is alleged to have been murdered. This one particular is very important and the police have every reason to believe his story. The part that differs from that of Mrs. Clevenger is regarding the leaving of the house of Clevenger and the negro.

According to the story Lee told the police and authorities he was spending the night near the Big Four bridge where he had a fire and that Clevenger came to him between twelve-thirty and one o'clock. Lee states that Clevenger invited him to the house and that he went. Lee stated that while at the railway bridge Clevenger told him there would be a freight train shortly and that he was going to get some coal off the tender or a coal car. He said Clevenger told him he was in the habit of obtaining his supply of coal in this manner and that if he got off more than they could carry over to the house he would hitch the horse up to the wagon and haul it over.

When they reached the house, according to the negro, Clevenger offered him whiskey and told him that he made his living selling whiskey and gambling. According to Lee Clevenger boasted about having plenty of money and told Lee that if he did not believe it to ask his wife. Lee stated that Clevenger cursed him because he would not take a drink every time he did. The colored man stated that Clevenger attempted to buy the rifle and that when they left the house he called

300 EXPECTED AT BANQUET

Odd Fellows Prepare For County Meeting Here Tomorrow.

Great preparations have been made for the county meeting of Odd Fellows here tomorrow. Much stress is being laid on the afternoon meeting when the Milroy team will confer the initiatory degree on a class. Preparations are being made to feed 300 at the banquet which will be served between six and eight. At eight o'clock the team of Franklin Lodge of this city will give the first degree to a class representing every Odd Fellows lodge in the county. Short talks will be given by representatives of the county lodges and by Grand Master J. T. Arbuckle. All members of the order are urged to attend.

EXPRESS OFFICES ARE CONSOLIDATED

American and Wells Fargo Combined
But Who Shall be Agent Was Still an Open Question Today.

SAME DRIVER IS RETAINED

The local agencies of the Wells Fargo and the American Express companies were to be consolidated here today and the business of both companies to be transacted through one office. Samuel Finney, the American agent, was to have the combined agency, but it is said that he has resigned because of the extra work required. Walter Bridenton, the Wells Fargo agent, has had his resignation in the hands of the superintendent for two weeks, it is reported. It was said today that an agent would be sent here to take charge of the combined offices, which will be located in the Poundstone building where the Wells Fargo office now is.

Marion Finney, who has been the driver of the American wagon, will act as driver of the wagon under the new arrangement. It will be recalled that recently the Wells Fargo company took over the business of the United States express company and for that reason had an office here.

NO CASE AGAINST SHEPARD

Police Investigate What They Thought Theft of a Hide.

A man giving his name as F. M. Shephard, left a large hide at the meat market of Harry Kramer this afternoon when the police suspected that it had been stolen. Late today he had not called for the hide although the police had nothing on him and stated that he can have it. The man appeared at several of the local meat shops and attempted to sell the hide. Kramer offered to buy it but was told by the police to wait and see if it was stolen. The stranger stated that he bought the hide from a farmer named Byron Hughes, living near Columbia, Fayette county. A telephone call revealed the fact that Mr. Hughes had moved to Lafayette and as a result the police have nothing on Shephard.

Mayor Bebout Fines Bill Carter $5 and Costs and Sentences Him to Ten Days in Jail.

300 PEOPLE ATTEND COURT TICKET SELLERS NEEDED
Henry Harris Files Charge Against Carter—Henry Johnson Admits That he Mixed in it.

After sifting all the evidence possible on the fight of Sunday night involving several colored men all were released with the exception of Bill Carter and he was fined $5 and costs and given ten days in jail for good measure for assault and battery on Henry Harris.

One of the largest crowds ever in police court was on hands when the negroes were brought before Mayor Bebout. Before the officers could go on with the trial with any degree of satisfaction it was necessary to clear the court room. It was estimated that fully 300 people crowded into the mayor's office. The crowd was so large that it surged over on the mayor's table and the officers could not work with this large a crowd.

Henry Harris, who was cut on the neck in the fight of Sunday night, filed the charge against Carter, who admitted that he had struck him but did not do the cutting. Harris stated that he was on his way home about seven-thirty o'clock Sunday night when he was attacked by Carter. He stated that there was a gang of colored men with Carter and that as soon as he could get loose he ran for home. He did not know he had been cut until he reached the house.

Jesse Easley and Henry Wills, the other two arrested, did not know very much about the fight, or at least they told Mayor Bebout very little. Carter, it seems, must have been very drunk. He had two nice black eyes and did not know who hit him. Henry Johnson admitted that he was the one who struck Carter. Johnson stated that this fight occurred two hours after the first one. He said he understood that two men

MARY HORD GETS DIVORCE

Support Suit of Elvora Against Kenneth Alford Dismissed.

George Hord was granted a divorce this morning by Judge Megee from Mary Hord. The evidence in the case was heard some time ago and taken under advisement by the court. Mrs. Hord did not appear against him at the hearing. The suit for support brought by Elvora Alford against Kenneth Alford was dismissed and the costs paid by the defendant. The case was sent here on a change of venue from Hancock county. This case was heard some time ago but was never completed as the parties reached an agreement.

WAR TAX IS ON THE JOB TODAY

Law Makes itself Felt in Almost Every Line of Business When it Comes in Full Effect.

COMPLEX NATURE OF STATUTE

Freight and Express Agents Probably Hardest Hit Because of Burdens Placed Upon Them.

The "war-tax-in-time-of-peace" came into full effect today. The tax on wine, beer and tobacco has been effective since the first of November, but the other provisions were not operative until today.

The telephone and telegraph companies today began charging their one cent each for messages costing above fifteen cents. And while they are charging they have to pay as well. It costs the sender one cent a message and at the same time the telephone and telegraph companies have to pay a cent on each message over fifteen cents. So, in reality, every message of this class realizes two cents for the government.

But the big question today was whether or not every person who was compelled to use the adhesive stamps under the law would be required to go to Indianapolis to get the stamps. The internal revenue collector is given the right to place the stamps in the postoffice for sale, but today no stamps had been received at the postoffice here, neither had any arrangements been made for putting them on sale here.

Some of the banks had a few stamps for their own use but the banks were not intending to have the stamps for sale because of the trouble which would be entailed. No per cent. is allowed for the sale of stamps.

The express and freight agents were raising somewhat of a howl today because of the increased burdens placed on them by the war tax. A one-cent stamp must be placed on every freight and express receipt and must be paid by the person who sends the shipment. It matters not if the package is sent C. O. D., the consigner has to pay the war tax of one cent on each package.

Extra work is required of the express and freight agents due to the fact that since the new law is effective a receipt has to be issued to every person sending a package. This is necessary because the stamp has to be affixed to the receipt and then cancelled. Formerly very few people called for a receipt.

An exception is made in the case

KILLS WIFE AND WOUNDS PARAMOUR

William McCoy of Frankfort Finds Spouse With John Byerley When He Returns Home Today

THEN TRIES TO KILL HIMSELF

(By United Press.)

Frankfort, Ind., Dec. 1.—When William McCoy returned home unexpectedly today and found John Byerley, age twenty-five years, with his wife, he shot his wife, killing her instantly and fatally wounded Byerley. McCoy then took acid. He may recover. Mrs. McCoy was a handsome woman and came from a well-to-do family.

When Byerley saw McCoy he started to run. At a distance of one hundred feet McCoy fired a twelve-gauge shot gun. The charge tore away part of Byerley's head. McCoy then turned the gun on his wife. The shot tore away her head.

Jesse Pavay, of Indianapolis, formerly of this city, has been named as official court reporter for Superior Court, Room 5, by Judge Theophilus Moll, who took his office today.

Times Are Getting Better

Each day you see items in the newspapers telling of orders from abroad, or of mills starting up.

Each day the debt we owe to Europe is diminishing and Europe's demand for our goods grows greater.

The seas are open—trade is expanding. Now is the time to go after business—not tomorrow but NOW.

We don't have to go to foreign shores to seek it. There is plenty of trade to be had right here at our own door steps.

Now is the time to be aggressive. Now is the time to Advertise.

DANDRUFF SURELY DESTROYS THE HAIR

Makes it Dull, Brittle, Lifeless, and Causes It To Fall Out.

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Cattle Plague

It is little wonder that the foot-and-mouth disease (known scientifically as aphthous fever, epizootic aphtha or eczema epizootica) has spread over a wide area before it was discovered. Added to the extreme ease and rapidity of infection is the fact that only experts knew much about it, and their knowledge was chiefly theoretical. Few veterinaries or stock inspectors had ever seen a case, and few cattle raisers had any but the vaguest knowledge of the ailment.

About forty years ago the disease appeared in the United States, coming from Canada. It did not spread then to its present extent. After its eradication it never got another start in this country until within the last few weeks. Europe has been less fortunate. About 1890 the plague swept through Germany and destroyed $40,000,000 worth of stock.

Most domestic animals are subject to the disease. Sheep and hogs are the most susceptible, and horses the least. The first symptoms are blisters forming in the mouth and nose and on other parts of the body where the skin is tender, particularly the sensitive parts of the feet. The blisters soon become open sores, and the animal has difficulty in eating and walking. The infection spreads so rapidly and easily that the only thing to do when a case is discovered is to kill and bury the victim, and burn or disinfect everything to which it may have communicated the malignant germs through contact. There is no known cure.

POLAND FORCES LOCKED IN BATTLE

Armies Gradually Merge Into One Great Body During Week—Russians Hold Advantage.

THE GERMAN ATTACK LOSES

BY ED L. KEEN.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, December 1.—Russian and German official statements today give every indication that the German lines in Poland are intact and that forces are now locked in a terrific battle extending over what virtually amounts to a front of 100 miles. There are three points of contact from the German positions south of Plock, through Lowicz and Lodz and Southeast of Cracow. The armies have gradually merged into one great force during the past week, however and the developments of the past two days clearly indicate that early Russian reports were overly optimistic.

General VonHindenbergs army which was composed largely of conscripts of next year's line has now been reinforced. With the kaiser at the eastern front it is believed a supreme effort is about to be made to hurl the Russian offensive back upon Warsaw. Every confidence is felt here that the Russians now hold the advantage, but it is realized that the conflict in the eastern theatre is far from a decision. When the big battle is finally fought and the result and details are learned, it is believed it will prove to be the most sanguinary conflict of the war. Its influence upon the entire situation will also be of the greatest importance. Some military experts believe that the Germans are now making time in the west awaiting the outcome of General VonHindenbergs conflict with the Russians. Defeat in the east it is believed would be followed by immediate retirement of the Germans to their second line of defenses in Belgium. The Kaiser would then be completely on the defensive on both fronts. The departure of the king for the front and his visit to the troops is believed to foreshadow an early offensive movement by the allies. It is realized that such a movement will not be attempted until Generals Joffre and French are convinced that the strength of the Germans has reached a low ebb in their vain efforts to reach the coast by hurling vast forces against the allied lines. The German attack has now lost a greater part of its force with fresh French and British troops constantly arriving the time for the allies to strike is believed to be rapidly approaching.

A KIDNEY REMEDY ADVERTISEMENT BROUGHT GREAT HAPPINESS

I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, that I was greatly benefited by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son, when quite young, who suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. It cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am.

had jumped on Harris and that he told Carter it was a cowardly act for two to jump on one and that Carter took it up and asked if he didn't want a little of it.

Johnson stated that Carter hit him first, and then he let him have it and from the looks of Carter he surely got it. All this was a blank to Carter and he was very much surprised to learn that Johnson had struck him. Carter did not know he had two fights in one night. Wills stated that he acted as peacemaker between Carter and Harris and attempted to separate the men.

Mayor Bebout could see only one guilty man and proceeded to give Carter enough to keep him in jail until Christmas morning.

The price is low enough for such an array of music—twenty-five cents—and the cause is a worthy one. There will not be one cent of expense attached to the project. Every cent paid for tickets will be divided equally to buy flour for destitute Belgians and for the Good Fellows League to help the needy little folks of Rushville have a happy Christmas.

Tickets are on sale at all of the drug stores and are in the hands of a number of individuals who have been soliciting. The help of any person or persons who will volunteer to aid in the sale of tickets will be most joyfully received. The time is short, and it is necessary that as many as possible have tickets for sale.

WELSH HAD MADE GREAT RECORD

Englishman Has Fought More Times in Six Weeks Than His Predecessors in Six Months

AND WITH AMERICA'S BEST

With Charles Murphy Back on Scene in Chicago There Promised to Be Much Noise

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Dec. 1.—Hats off to Freddie Welsh, Englishman and fighter! That last word is used advisedly. It's a word that couldn't be applied truthfully to a lot of American champions, near or far.

Freddie Welsh, in about six weeks time has fought more two-fisted scrapers than some of his predecessors in the Lightweight Chair fought in as many months of their respective kingships. And the men who faced Welsh in this period are of America's best.

The little Englishman sailed into this country on the wave of his success over Willie Ritchie literally with his fighting togs on and his guard up. His first match was with Matty Baldwin, in Boston, Welsh won. A few days after the Baldwin bout, Welsh met ex-champion Ad Wolgast in New York, and showed his class. This battle ended before the ten-round limit had been reached, when Wolgast broke a bone in his hand. Without a sign of fear for his hard-earned crown, Welsh almost immediately jumped to Milwaukee to fight Charley White. The latter was given a draw by some sporting writers, but Welsh had no time for explanations or excuses. He was a fighter. His board bill refused to stop. He made another date—this time meet crafty Duffy at Buffalo. He kept the date by outpointing Duffy.

Now there are two reasons why Welsh should get the palm for this record. He should get it going or coming. Some folks might say, "Well, why shouldn't he fight. This business of praising him for being a willing worker is all bosh. Welsh can command the money and he is getting it while it's good." Let's concede that, only for the sake of argument, and we'll ask this one question.

"How many American champions in the last 15 years have been willing to mix with the best ones in such quick fashion, and for the comparatively small purses Welsh gets?" That's all.

With Chattering Charley Murphy back on the scene in Chicago there promises to be sufficient noise to make this winter homelike to a boiler maker. Murphy's return to the National League when everyone had heaved a sigh of relief at his "much exaggerated" baseball demise, won't help

HEALTHY HAIR SOFT AND FLUFFY

If your hair is not fluffy, soft and lustrous, is falling out, streaked, faded, brittle, or full of dandruff, and if the scalp itches, do not think it must always be that way, for pretty hair is only a matter of care and the use of Parisian Sage, a delightful toilet necessity.

This helpful tonic supplies just the elements needed to invigorate the hair roots and stimulate your hair to grow long, thick, fluffy, soft and lustrous. It removes all dandruff with one application and quickly stops itching head and falling hair. Parisian Sage is the ideal hair tonic and scalp treatment, sold by Johnson's Drug Store, it contains nothing injurious, is delicately perfumed, inexpensive, and surely gives your hair the beauty and charm of youth.

of shipments of newspapers by express. Each bundle is considered one shipment, but the publisher does not have to affix a stamp as in other instances because of the delay which would be caused. A special provision is made for newspaper publishers. They shall file on or before the fifteenth of each month with the internal revenue collector a report under oath showing the number of such shipments during the preceding month to which report the publisher shall affix the cancel stamps equal in value to one cent for each shipment made. An exception is made where newspapers are shipped to points in the county where the newspaper is published, no stamps being required. The law does not affect local publishers because all newspapers published here are sent by mail. Any failure to issue a bill of lading, manifest or other memorandum, is punishable by a fine of $50 for each offense. Any person or persons who "shall make, sign, or issue, or cause to be made, signed, or issued, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever, without the same being duly stamped for denoting the tax hereby imposed thereon, or without having therupon an adhesive stamp to denote said tax, such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not more than $100, at the discretion of the court."

Another penalty, not to exceed $500 is provided for failure to cancel a war tax stamp in the following section of the law:

"That in any and all cases where an adhesive stamp shall be used for denoting any tax imposed by this Act, except as hereinafter provided, the person using or affixing the same shall write or stamp thereupon the initials of his name and the date upon which the same shall be attached or used, so that the same may not again be used. And if any person shall fraudulently make use of an adhesive stamp to denote any tax imposed by this Act without so effectually canceling and obliterating such stamp, except as before mentioned, he, she, or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not exceeding $500, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court."

Motion picture show owners today awake to the reality that the special tax they have already paid is not the only one. Whenever they ship a film back to Indianapolis, which is every day, and whenever they receive a film, also every day, it will cost them a cent. The tax has to be paid by the consignor, but the film companies will make the picture show owners stand the expense of the tax on films sent to them. This means an extra cost of two cents a day when only one shipment is sent and received. All picture shows seating up to 250 persons had to pay $25 a year and those seating up to 500 had to pay $50. The Princess is the only one coming in the latter class.

The war tax stamps are regular size of a light pink color and give the value in bold letters. The stamps will be used mostly in Rush county to express and freight agents, attorneys and banks.

The law places a tax on practically all legal papers, transactions, bonds, debentures or certificates of indebtedness. A 25-cent stamp must be placed on each paper acting as a conveyance of real estate or in collection of rents. For power of attorney a ten-cent stamp is required.

The people will come to learn more about the "war-tax-in-time-of-peace" as the peaceful times go on, but it remains to be seen just how well they will like it.

Charles Inman Able to Go to Work After Operation Was Avoided.

Charles Inman, 424 East Chestnut street, Hartford City, Ind., was desperately ill. He was advised to go to Fort Wayne for an operation.

Then he took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and in a short time was able to go back to work. In a letter he said:

"My disease started seven years ago. I had to give up and go to bed. Four doctors said they could not cure me unless I went to Fort Wayne to be operated on, and that it would cost $150 or $200. My daughter saw your advertisement and I took your treatment. In three weeks I went to work and haven't missed but one-half day since from sickness. It surely saved my life."

The ladies of the U. P. church made a great success of their annual thank offering, taking in $44.50. The Rev. Daniel Ryan preached a wonderful sermon from the text "Behold my hands," Sunday morning at the M. E. church here. Superintendent V. W. Tevis preached the evening sermon to a large and appreciative audience. The quarterly conference convened at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Lord's Supper was administered to a large per cent of the membership at the close of the evening sermon.

Miss Lulu Edwards, superintendent of the schools at Kendalville, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with Miss Ruth Harwell. They were classmates at DePauw university a few years ago.

William Cameron spent Thanksgiving vacation with home folks. He is well pleased with the Munie normal where he is attending school.

The following officers were elected for the next term by the Odd Fellows November 28: N. G., Joel B. Hensley; V. G., Jesse Morris; recording secretary, George C. Jones; financial secretary, John F. Mapes; treasurer, H. E. Daubenspeck; trustee for three years, Sam D. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Cameron and son William attended the funeral of Miss Mary Larimore at Columbia, Fayette county. They made the trip in an automobile.

A large crowd of friends, neighbors, and relatives attended the funeral of the late Miss Rebecca Reed at the Glenwood M. E. church November 25. She has been an invalid and a patient sufferer for many years.

With another week of good weather, Thomas Richardson's house will be enclosed.

Dr. Osborne has moved into his new residence in the new addition.

Clarence Carr's residence has plastered and soon will be ready for the carpenters to finish.

Miss Maggie Laughlin was visiting Dan Laughlin and family.

Dr. Walther's home was the first to be "hitched" to the electric wires which have been strung here by the I & C. Light & Power company.

George Jones is able to be at work again after having been laid up by an injury he received.

Mrs. George Stamm is visiting with her son Jacob Stamm of Indianapolis, this week.

Electric lights have been installed in both the M. E. church and parsonage.

If You Want Salvation

Would you go to a Preacher or a Justice of the Peace? If you wanted beefsteak would you go to a butcher shop or a hardware store? If you wanted a silk dress for your wife's birthday would you go to a dry goods store or a livery stable? DEAD EASY YOU SAY TO CHOOSE THE RIGHT PLACE IN EACH CASE. It should be just as easy for you to choose the right place to buy your buggies. Buy from the man who handles buggies exclusive. There is the place you are going to get the most for your money. That is where you are going to get the biggest bunch of satisfaction. Don't it stand to reason that with my entire energy concentrated on the buggy business alone that you can get better buggies and better service here than you can from the man that handles buggies as a side line. I don't sell you a buggy today and forget you tomorrow, but am continually watching every buggy I sell to see that it gives satisfaction. Everybody that buys one of our buggies has to be satisfied and if you are not one of our satisfied customers or if you are in need of a storm buggy and like to buy where you can do the best and get the best value for your money we are after your business. Take one good look at what we have on our sample floor and your business is ours in the future.

STORIES VARY IN ONE PLACE

Lee an ugly name and said he would take it away from him.

Mrs. Clevenger stated to the police that the two men left together. Lee says that Clevenger left the house first and called to someone sleeping in a shed or shack in the rear of the Clevenger home to come and help him get the rifle away from him. He says Mrs. Clevenger and a little girl also went outside. By this time, Lee says he began to think he had better get away from the place and picked up the lunch she had prepared for him and left, going out over the back fence. He says that he was pursued by two men and that when they reached the lane they grappled with him.

He says all three men had hold of the rifle and that one man was choking him. In the scuffle the gun exploded and, according to the negro he relinquished his hold and ran. The negro says it was very dark and that at the time he did not know anyone had been wounded. He stated that he was afraid the two men would get him so he left. The negro declared that he went south along the railway and that he was in the city again Sunday evening at six o'clock.

Mrs. Clevenger, in her statement to the coroner declared that her husband and the negro left the house together and that there was no ill feeling between them. From the negro's story, it is readily seen why the police are holding Luther Butts. The only person Joe Clevenger could have called to in the rear of his house was Butts, and if the negro's story is true it is taken that it was Butts who pursued the negro, in company with Clevenger.

Whether the rifle was fired accidentally in the struggle remains to be determined. The negro stated that Clevenger had hold of the rifle on the barrel end and that the strange man had hold of the stock, with him holding the middle. The story was told by the negro voluntarily as he was not questioned. He was requested to tell just what happened, starting in from the time Clevenger came to him near the Big Four bridge.

One thing in favor of Lee is that he apparently made no great effort to get away. When caught he was only about three miles from the city and made no attempt to escape arrest when approached by Sheriff Cavitt and Chief Rosencrance.

The police have failed to locate the rifle. An incident not connected with the case came to light today. Henry Todd, employed at the O. C. Brann and Sons store, stated that his rifle was stolen this summer while he was working on a road near Dupont, Ind. Todd states that the construction company had a negro employed there by the name of John Lee and that when the negro left the camp it is supposed he took his rifle. The rifle that killed Clevenger may have belonged to Todd. Todd has asked for a chance to see the negro, as he says he would know him, and may be given the chance. The rifle owned by Todd was similar to the one carried by Lee.
